

Personal Statement for Midwife Post

My name is XXXX. I am a 38 years old woman who is a mother of three daughters. I am applying for the post of a midwife because it has been my dream job since my teenage years, and I believe that I have the kind of personality and skills that make me a perfect candidate for this job. In my opinion, the process of giving birth and bringing a new life into this world is one of the most beautiful, unforgettable and life-changing experiences for anyone who gets the honour of becoming a parent.

I have always been fascinated by the process of childbirth. Ever since I read about the female reproductive system and the ultimate strength that a woman shows from conception till childbirth, I have been aspiring to help women going through this process. My favourite television show is 'One Born Every Minute' on channel 4. When I got to know about a midwife's job, I decided that this is the perfect job for me because being able to help pregnant women and their families will give me immense pleasure.

Talking about personality, my caring, friendly, passionate, hardworking, and, most importantly, empathetic nature makes me a perfect candidate for this job. I was the first-born child of my parents and had six siblings. Being the eldest sibling, I felt that it was my responsibility to help my mother take care of my younger siblings. I happily and eagerly did all the tasks of a babysitter when my mother was not at home. So I had this innate quality of finding joy and peace while taking care of children.

Moreover, as I grew up, my grandmother got very ill, and I was the one who took care of all her needs until she passed away. Finally, when I gave birth to three children and had to take care of them, I gained valuable experience in caring for children. So my personal life has
